

The Global Undergraduate Exchange Program (Global UGRAD) in Eurasia and Central Asia

Global UGRAD

Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

All fellows will:

- Attend classes full-time for one academic year;
- Perform a minimum of 20 hours of community service in their host city during the first semester; and
- Complete a part-time internship during their second semester.

Global UGRAD provides opportunities for current undergraduate students to spend one academic year of non-degree study in a US university or community college. Participants are selected through an open, merit-based competition.

The fellowship is fully funded and provides:

- J-1 Visa Support
- Round-trip travel from fellow's home city to host institution in the United States
- Accident and Sickness Coverage
- Tuition and mandatory university fees
- Room and board (housing and meals);
- Small incidentals allowance
- Limited allowance for books
- A wide variety of alumni networking and training opportunities

Applications will be available in mid-November 2009. Please contact your local IREX office with any questions.
